

Our Mission is ...

To bring Glory to God by showing forth the faithfulness and power He gives to those who carry out the Words of His Son Jesus Christ and in so doing provide evidence for others to believe and put their trust in the living God.

Our Vision is ...

- To become a biblically functioning community by structuring church life around the development of small groups (cells) so that meaningful and caring relationships can take place and thus create an atmosphere where God's Word can be practiced.
- To allocate church resources around the equipping and training of small group leaders providing them with the very best in knowledge, understanding, and encouragement.
- To experience God in regular settings of corporate worship through relevant and lively forms of worship that allow for the operation of spiritual gifts and the preaching of God's Word where people are encouraged in their faith and guided in its application.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonight's Sermon – Pastor McCowan

If you go to the Internet to search for the best jobs ever, you'll get a number of suggestions. From a discussion of some of these jobs, we move to Paul's own reflection about his "job" -- including his remarkable admission that as a "man of violence," the job he landed was not what most people would expect. The title of Pastor McCowan's sermon is "Appointed to Serve."

Ekklesia Women's Retreat

The Ekklesia Women's Retreat will be held at the beautiful Aldersgate Retreat Center in Ravenna, KY. This year's theme is, "For I have redeemed you. I have summoned you by name. You are mine." Isaiah 43:1 Our speaker for this year's retreat is Monica Freeman, the Director of Women of Excellence at Evangel World Prayer Center in Louisville, Ky. The conference amount is $75.00, which covers all meals for Friday through Saturday morning, along with cabins for Thursday-Saturday. A sign-up sheet is at the information table. Extra optional activities for Friday afternoon will include swimming and horseback riding. Ladies who are planning to attend the retreat are asked to sign waiver forms located at the Information Table.
